DOCTRINAL
STATEMENT of the Washington Bible Institute

————— We believe in —————

We believe in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, verbally inspired, the all-sufficient rule of faith and practice.

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the virgin birth, the sinless perfection, the bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven of Jesus Christ, and in His present life there for us as High Priest and Advocate.

We believe man was created in the image of God, that he disobeyed God, and thereby incurred spiritual death, which is separation from God, and also physical death as a consequence; and that all the Adamic race are born in sin and are sinners by nature and practice.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins as a vicarious substitutionary sacrifice, and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.

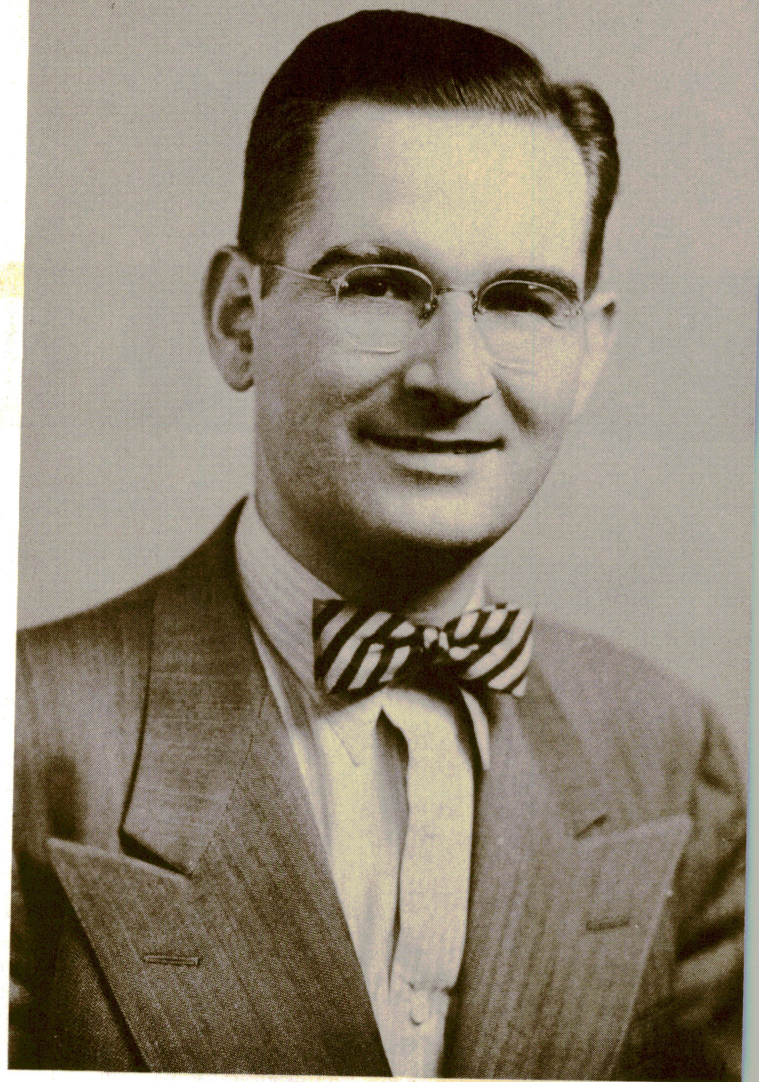

We believe in the personal, premillennial, and immanent return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born of the Holy Spirit, and thereby become children of God.

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

We believe the Church is an elect company of believers baptized by the Holy Spirit into one body; its mission is to witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations; it will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air ere He appears to set up His Kingdom.

We believe the grace of God to be sufficient for the maintenance of a godly walk, and that Christ and not the law is the believer's rule of life.

Dr. Karl E. Keefer

DEDICATION

We dedicate this volume of the Milestone to whom we love as dean, teacher, and friend.

Dr. Karl E. Keefer,

FOUNDERS

MR. EDWARD W. COLLAMORE

Mr. Edward W. Collamore, founder of the American Home Bible Institute, was born in 1874, and went to be with the Lord on August 27, 1930. He received his theological training at the Union Biblical Seminary, in Dayton, Ohio, and held pastorates in the United Brethren Church.

After coming to Washington, he accepted employment with the government, and in 1917 he organized the Cottage Bible Institute, which was later changed to the American Home Bible Institute. Through his untiring efforts, the Institute ministered to a large number of correspondence students as well as to assembled classes.

Following his death, William C. Bond, Jr., Glenn Wagner, and George A. Miles, successively, were presidents of the school until the merger with the Washington School of the Bible in 1938. Mr. Collamore had a deep passion for his own study of the Word and for teaching it to others. His last prayers were that the work of the Institute would continue, and that the Word of God might have free course.

REV. C. W. OYER

Mr. C. W. Oyer was born June 24, -870, and went to be with the Lord April 21, 1951. He received his Bible training at the Bible Institute of Bluffton, Ohio, and continued to be an ardent Bible student all his life. After serving as a pastor in Ohio, and then in Jewish work in Chicago, he served at the Fort Wayne Bible Institute as Superintendent until 1923.

He came to Washington in 1925, at the call of the Bible Institute of Washington to serve as Superintendent, and in addition to serve as pastor of the Open Door Church.

In the late 1920's, he organized the Washington School of the Bible, which was conducted in the Open Door Church. This school united with the American Home Bible Institute in 1938 to form the Washington Bible Institute. Mr. Oyer became chairman of the Board of Trustees of the new school, and served in this capacity until his passing in 1951.

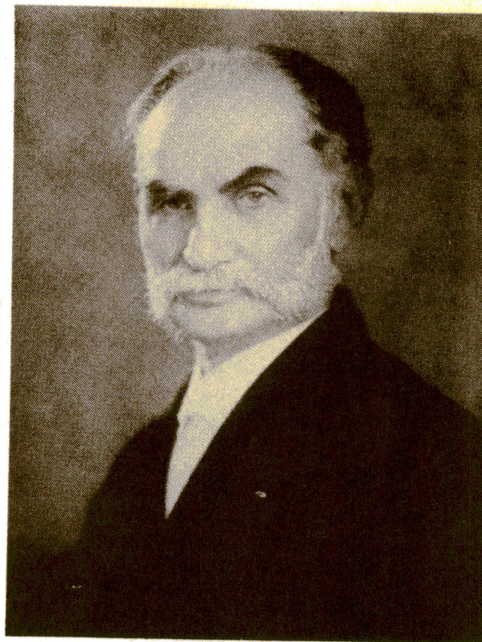

He was greatly loved and used of the Lord in the development of the Bible Institute movement in Washington.

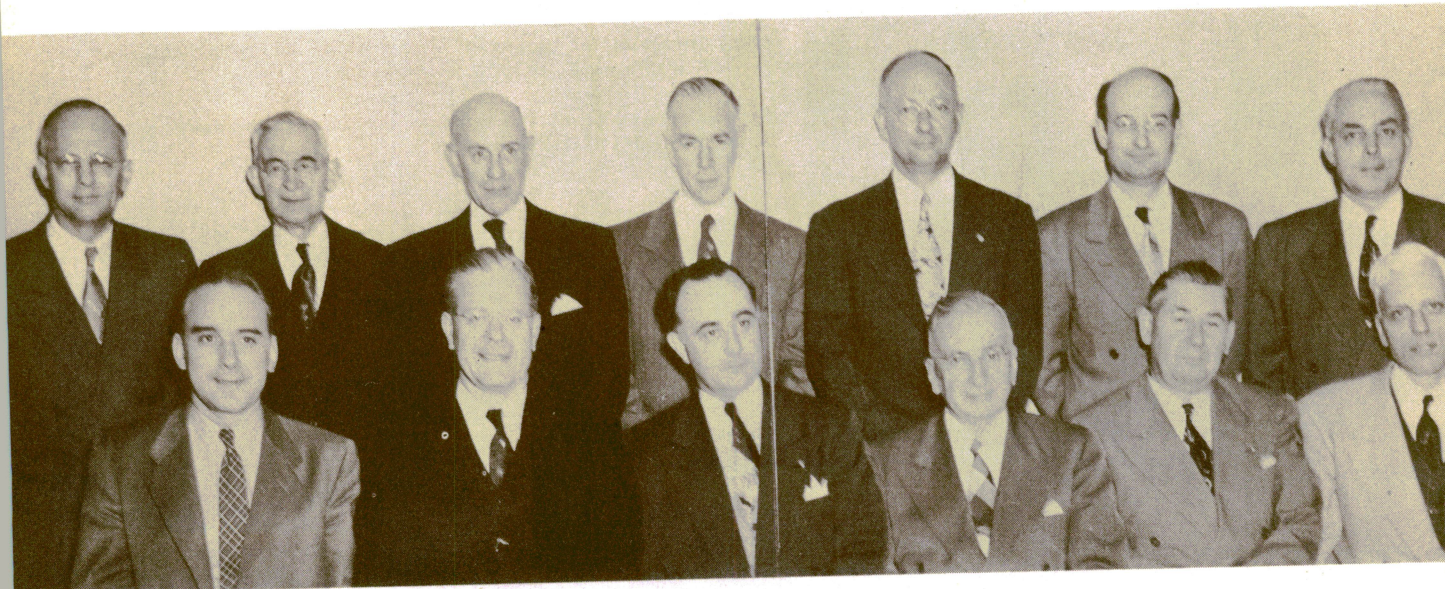

DR. A. R. KULDELL

The Bible Institute of Washington had its inception in 1902, when a number of Bible classes were held in various homes and churches by Mrs. Steel. At that time, Dr. M. E. Miller, Mr. I. B. Linton, and Mr. Robert H. Clark were among those who supported the classes. In 1919, Mr. and Mrs. Shelly, in cooperation with others, conducted classes in their apartment, and a year later in their home at 1824 H Street, N. W., under the name of Washington Bible School.

In 1920, Dr. Kuldell was appointed dean and instructor. In 1923, Dr. Kuldell led in securing a property at 1316 Vermont Avenue, N. W., as a home for the Institute, and through his efforts brought about the permanent organization under the name "Bible Institute of Washington." He was largely responsible for the management and growth of the school for the following ten years.

Dr. Kuldell was greatly interested in the evangelization of the Jews, and his life and ministry brought much blessing to believers through the classroom. Mr. I. H. Linton, Mr. Kearns, and others, directed the interests of the school in the late thirties until the union with the Washington Bible Institute in 1940.

The students, faculty, and staff of Washington Bible Institute are grateful to the Lord for giving them this group of faithful men as the Board of Trustees. Once each month, these Christian leaders from all walks of life gather together at the school for discussion and prayer regarding the material, academic, and spiritual growth of the Institute. Their assistance was of utmost importance in gaining the degree-granting license this year, and their continuing concern for the welfare of the school is of great significance as it looks toward the future.

TRUSTEES

Administrative

Mr. Miles, President

PRESIDENT

George A. Miles has served as president of Washington Bible Institute for the past ten years. During this time, he has faithfully carried out his duties as administrator. His determination, foresight, and consecration to the Lord have meant a great deal to the progress of W.B.I. His love for the Lord and for souls has caused students and staff alike to search their hearts many times.

TO THE CLASS OF 1955:

The walk of faith leads in the safest path in this world for a Christian, but at the same time it is a path in which we are utterly dependent upon the Lord. It is the only walk by which we can please God, and it brings His "well done"; yet it is beset with numberless temptations daily, and the testings and trials that come to purify.

"By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went." (Hebrews 11:8) May Abraham be an example to each of you is our prayer. The future is impossible without Christ. But knowing Him and resting upon Him, you may go out, not knowing where, but confident it will be a place of fruitful witnessing. "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way thou shalt go; I will guide thee with mine eye." (Psalm 32:8)

If we have learned well the lessons of the Word in these brief years at W. B. I., our path will be a blessed one. But one lesson will still rise above all others--our utter dependence upon Him. "Without me ye can do nothing." (John 15:5) Our temptation is to attempt to accomplish the task God has given us by other means than "by faith." "By faith" has no limitations upon it either of time or of physical resources. Keep in mind it is the only method that has the approval of God. It is the only method that promises a reward when we see our Savior face to face. It is the only method that will attempt or accomplish great things, because it utilizes the unlimited resources of an infinite God.

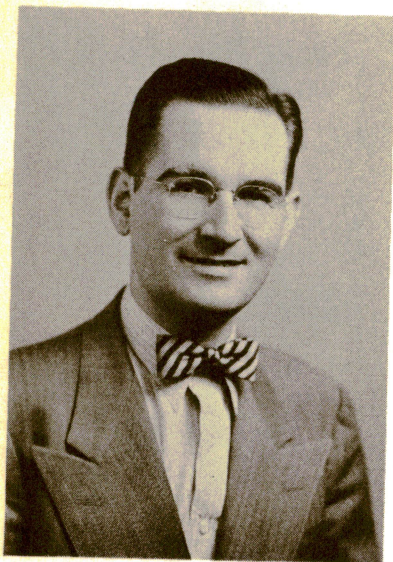

We congratulate you upon reaching this significant milestone. You will continue to hold a very real place in our prayers. We are expecting God to use you to the fullest and challenge you anew to complete yieldedness to Him in a moment by moment walk of faith.

In our Savior's love,

George A. Miles

FACULTY

KARL E. KEEFER, Dean, New Testament

For past disciplines, present joys, and future hopes, my heart gives thanks to a loving and all-wise Heavenly Father, Who, seeing the end from the beginning, doeth all things well.

WILLIS E. BISHOP, Old Testament, Theology

"I know not where God's islands lift their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift beyond His love and care."

JIMMIE WOODS, Registrar and Dean of Women

"The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower." (Psa. 18:2)
Christ means this to me--and more--since I have come to know Him as a personal Savior.

JAMES G. DIXON, Pastoral Theology

"Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you." To be chosen by God is the greatest thrill of my life and to be ordained as a "fruitbearer" is the greatest commission. It is my fervent prayer that the Spirit of God will so direct and use me as to bring forth the type of fruit that is not only pleasing to Him but which shall last for all eternity.

LOUISE A. WEBSTER, English

"Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad with exceeding joy." (I Peter 4: 12, 13)

I. JAMES WHITE, Music

"But God commendeth his love to us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." This statement is unfathomable to the finite mind, but I am so glad that this was God's way of extending mercy to an undeserving sinner like me.

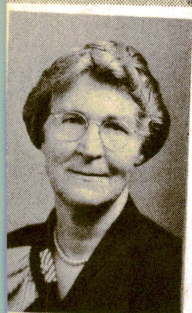

JUNE M. LEWIS, Christian Education

My testimony is one of praise to God and thanksgiving "having been enriched in everything to all bountifulness." (II Corinthians 4:15; 9:11) The Lord has proved Himself sufficient in all things. My prayer is that I may grow, not only in grace, but in dependence upon Him, that I may not hinder His hand by self intervention and determination, but will allow room for His leading and fullness in my life.

GEORGE A. MILES, President

"Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him and He shall bring it to pass." (Psa. 37:5) Many puzzling crossroads of life have been solved for me by this formula. Learning to commit and trust has opened the door for the Lord to show me great and mighty things. His faithfulness has brought much joy to my life and has given me increased praise and thanksgiving.

In December of 1954, the Institute suffered the loss of one of its finest and most faithful faculty members, Mrs. Harley M. Hasker. Mrs. Hasker had served W. B. I. as instructor in Christian Education in both the day and evening schools, and had made herself beloved to both students and colleagues. But while we miss her now, we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for "we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. . . . Then shall be brought to pass the saying which is written, Death is swallowed up in victory!"

"Fallen asleep in Jesus! How precious is that word--
Enjoying now forevermore the presence of the Lord.
This is not death! 'Tis only sleep;
The Lord thy loved one now doth keep!

PRAYER STEWARDS

Washington Bible Institute depends wholly on the prayers of God's people, together with their financial support, for its operation. The Prayer Steward Department has been formed to meet this need, and is now under the direction of Rev. Edward Stelling. This department suggests a weekly prayer calendar, praying first for the needs of the school and then for the cause of Christ throughout the world.

Rev. Ed Stelling

Throughout the school year, the missionary emphasis is kept strong at W. B. I. Each Thursday, the chapel program is devoted to foreign missions, and is under the auspices of the Foreign Missions Fellowship chapter. Missionaries and speakers about missions are given the opportunity of presenting to the students the foreign fields of the world. Thereby, students are encouraged in their own hearts to pray for the fields, and to submit themselves to God for His leading in respect to their own service. The climax of the year for F. M. F. is the annual Missionary Conference, at which classes are set aside for two days, and students and visitors alike are presented with the challenge of missions in an unusually effective way.

The Student Council forms the pivot around which revolve all the phases of the W. B. I. student's social life. The Student Council consists of nine members, a man and a woman from each class, plus the president, who is elected by the student body as a whole. The Student Council has the responsibility of directing all aspects of the student social life, and also of helping the administration maintain high standards of spiritual life and conduct.

George Schmidt, Helen Millson,

HONOR SOCIETY

The Chi Alpha Omega Honor Society, membership in which is available to all students after their first year of study, encourages students to maintain high scholastic records. A progressive series of awards, including honor pins and a honor key, are given those who meet certain academic standards of achievement. Taking II Timothy 2:15 as its motto, the society also desires that scholarship be coupled with uprightness of character and humbleness of spirit, that its members may always be "approved unto God."

Mr. Hobart Moyer, President

ALUMNI

The W. B. I. Alumni Association is an active and growing organization. This year, for the first time in its history, it has taken on the project of sponsoring a foreign student in his study at the Institute. Gioele Settembrini arrived in the United States from Italy in June, 1954. The Alumni Association took on his support, by faith, and is trusting the Lord to supply the need. Activities of the Association this year included a weiner roast to welcome the new students, held at Manassas, Virginia; the annual Alumni Banquet, held at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church; a Christmas Concert at the Institute; and an outing at which the officers for the new year were elected.

CALLING HOME

Mrs. Marley Harker

Mrs. Harker was translated on December 16, 1954. Her service in the classroom of Washington Bible Institute was outstanding. She has endeared herself to hundreds whose lives were enriched by her life and instruction.

Miss Lucia Hendrickson

Miss Hendrickson was called home on December 16, 1954. She had not lived near the Institute in the early days of WBI, she and greatly assisted in the clinic. We thank God for faithful service.

• If you, known to thousands of other lives, at the age of 92. She had been anxious for her Lord who are now in active will keep her memory fresh. She was greatly Washington Bible Institute.

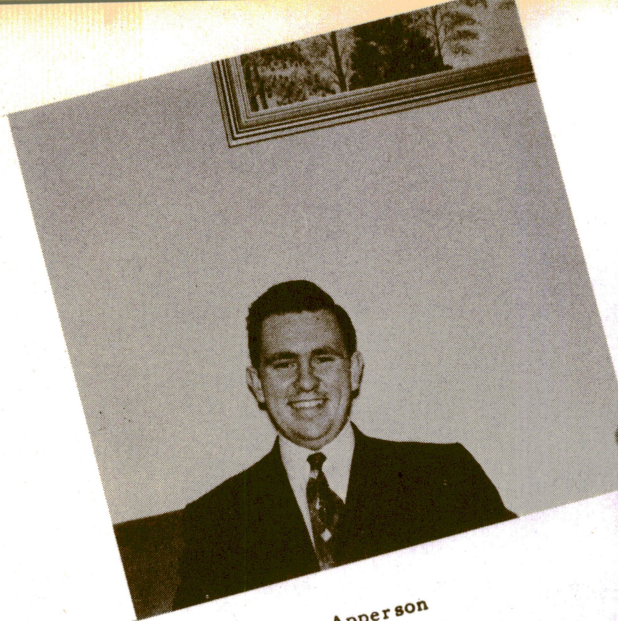

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

In glancing through Christian periodicals the past few weeks I have been arrested by the number of articles on prayer. The wisdom magazine was devoted almost entirely to this subject. Then due to the resignation of one of our instructors I found myself leading a course on prayer. Suddenly I became aware of a number of books on prayer in my library on the subject. The impact seems to be increasing. This week is Spiritual Emphasis Week at the Institute with the students bringing the challenge of the Word on prayer. All this has begun to affect my prayer life; my thinking about the place of prayer; the sin that so easily besets us—that of "prayerlessness", rooted in unbelief; the substitutes we use to plug our shattered breast works of prayer.

If Charles Finney needed a revival once a month, great man of God that he was, surely we stand sorely in need of revival more often. Can it be that our prayer becomes a rusted vessel full of holes that can carry no water from the Throne; a rotten bridge that is incapable of bringing us into His presence; a conduit blacked by personal sin, all due to our neglect? May we each respond to the challenge of prayer.

The monthly news publication, the W. B. I. Tidings, is designed to keep the many friends and prayer partners and alumni of the school informed with news of the work of the Institute and of the activities of the present student body and the alumni. The Bookstore, Record Shop, and organizations of the school, such as Foreign Missions Fellowship, Alumni Association, and others, furnish interesting material from time to time. Sermon outlines submitted by the faculty, personal testimonies of faculty and students, and a personal word from President Miles afford spiritual blessings to readers of the Tidings.

Activities

MUSIC

W. B. I.'s music classes are conducted to train young people in the ministry of music in the over-all church program. This ministry is a very important supplement in services of worship, praise, evangelism, etc. Sometimes the program suffers because of untrained personnel in the music field. W. B. I.'s music students have many opportunities to put their training to use, as gospel teams, soloists, and choruses travel about the area proclaiming the good news in song.

ORATIONS

He who says that Winston Churchill is our sole surviving orator evidently has not heard the W. B. I. students speak in the spring oratorical contest!

Each student chooses his own subject, which may be either secular or sacred in nature, and prepares his oration in consultation with his faculty adviser. After being memorized, the speech is delivered in a series of elimination contests from which are chosen those who compete in the finals, which follow the annual Fellowship Dinner at the close of school.

The contest is sponsored by the Board of Trustees, which presents awards to the winners at the Graduation Exercises.

Features

CHRISTIAN

Student Preachers

One of the greatest thrills for the student in Washington Bible Institute comes through participation in the Christian Service Department. When a new student begins his studies, he is given an assignment by Mr. White, the Director. This assignment may be teaching a Sunday-school class, conducting a prayer-meeting, participating in a rescue mission service, holding a Bible Club meeting, preaching, or some other type of activity. One of the outstanding groups in this department is the mixed chorus, which visits many churches in the surrounding area. As the students see boys and girls, and men and women, accept Christ as their personal Savior and grow in His grace, they rejoice in His goodness and count it a privilege to attend Washington Bible Institute.
